

A2 - Elena

00:01:23

Shot:		Graphic:
Writer:		VID_SRCE:
Air Date:		File:
Kill Date:

[NEW]

{ELENA} A two-vehicle accident involving a tractor-trailer and a sedan, has been reported this morning on Interstate seventy-west-bound at mile-marker one-sixty-eight.

The New-Concord Fire-Department was the first to arrive at the scene at nine-O-clock in the morning. With one driver in each vehicle, there were no other passengers involved.

The driver of the car was taken to Genesis-Hospital in Zanesville with non-life threatening injuries.

The accident remains under investigation.

[SECOND-DAY]

{ELENA} A two-vehicle accident involving a tractor-trailer and a sedan was reported yesterday-morning February-thirteenth. The accident was reported at Interstate seventy-west-bound at mile-marker one-sixty-eight.

The New-Concord Fire-Department was on scene for two-hours working on cleaning-up the spilled perfume chemicals from the semi that was involved in the crash.

The driver of the car has been identified as twenty-five year-old (EYE-LAH) Isla Smith. Smith was taken to Genesis-Hospital in Zanesville with non-life threatening injuries and was released today after observation.

[PERSPECTIVE]

[ELENA]The New-Concord Fire-Department were the first to respond to another vehicle-accident at nine-O'clock in the morning on Thursday February-thirteenth.

The accident involved a tractor-trailer and sedan on Interstate seventy-westbound at mile-marker one-sixty-eight.

The twenty-five year old driver of the sedan, (EYE-LAH) Isla Smith, was taken to Genesis-Hospital in Zanesville with non-threatening injuries and was released Friday after observation.

The New-Concord Fire-Department was at the scene for two-hours cleaning-up the perfume chemicals that were spilled from the semi.